The owner of a popular local mini-chain of restaurants has opened a burger bar on the same block of Centre Street in Jamaica Plain where she left behind waiting tables to become a food proprietor nine years ago this month.

Ten Tables founder Krista Kranyak says on her company's Twitter account on Wednesday, March 28, that GrassFed burger bar is now open seven days a week from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m.

The new eatery will take over corner space occupied by Bon Savor, which began as a French bistro six years ago before adding South American cuisine to its menu after renovating in 2008.

The couple that owned Bon Savor, natives of Colombia and Russia, had to put
